REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

T. L. Hanna, an International Baccalaureate World School, located in the growing community of Anderson, South Carolina, has a strong tradition of academic excellence. U.S. News and World Report named TLH as 13th in the state among all high schools and in the top 7% of all high schools in the nation. The diverse student body consists of approximately 1800 students. The strengths of the school include a rigorous curriculum that prepares students for higher education and the workplace; access to advanced technology; a nationally ranked Advanced Placement Program; and a high college-acceptance rate with over $15 million in scholarships for the Class of 2012. The first class of IB students graduated this year with a diploma recognized and accepted around the world. We have now begun the process for incorporating the IB Middle Years Program as well, which will offer the rigorous IB program to ninth and tenth graders as well. We will also begin our new Law Academy next year, taking advantage of multiple teachers with Juris Doctorate degrees on our faculty. Our challenge continues to be meeting the needs of all of our students. We have an increasing number of students who speak English as a second language; who live in poverty; and who have learning disabilities. Because of the national recession, our financial woes continue. Finding alternative sources of funding is a must. Hanna has a rich tradition of academic, athletic, and artistic excellence. The school has been named a National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence; a "Palmetto's Finest" award winner; a Siemens winner in Advanced Placement math, science, and technology; a flagship "School of Promise;" and a Gold Medallion winner for academic success on state report cards. The T. L. Hanna High School Band has won the "Rex Parade" at Mardi Gras in multiple years; the TLH Girls' Soccer Team won the AAAA state championship, as did the TLH Fishing Team and TLH Track Team in discus. It is with an outstanding faculty, staff, student body, and parental/community support that we continue to strive to be "The High School of Excellence."
